Programme overview

This programme leads to the New Zealand Certificate in Health and Wellbeing (Level 3) Orderly Services Strand qualification.

This programme is aimed at developing the skills and knowledge required to support a healthcare facility through the provision of orderly services.

Graduates will benefit by gaining recognition of transferable skills and knowledge that is valued across the health and wellbeing sector.

How the learning is delivered and assessed

This programme is delivered in the workplace, with the support of the employer and Careerforce.

Paper-based learning and assessment resources are available. These can be customised to your organisation. Employers should contact the Workplace Advisor to find out more about accessing our resources.

Workplace and learner requirements

Workplace: The employer is responsible for coordinating the learner's on-job training activities and support in the workplace. Employers are encouraged to work alongside Careerforce to support staff to remain motivated and successful in their learning journey.

Learner: Learners are encouraged to try to manage their work and training commitments as best they can and complete them within the timeframe agreed between themselves, their assessor and their employer. Learners are required to achieve at least 10 credits per calendar year.

Learner support

Learners who enrol in a Careerforce programme receive a series of supports to help keep them proactive, engaged and successful in their learning.

Learning outcomes:

- Providing orderly services to support the effective functioning of a healthcare facility e.g. moving and storing equipment and transporting people safely.
- Operating ethically and professionally in a health or wellbeing setting.
- Communicating with others to support people's health and wellbeing.

Literacy and numeracy support

Difficulties with learning can be a barrier to success. The Tertiary Education Commission (TEC) requires that workplace training includes identifying learners who may need extra support on their learning journey. Learners may be required to complete a literacy and numeracy assessment as part of this programme.

Grants and funding available

Several grants and funding options are available to help meet the costs of attaining Careerforce qualifications. You can view these options at careerforce.org.nz/fees-funding
