New Zealand Certificate in Health and Wellbeing (Level 3)

Health Assistance Strand

Qualification and programme overview

This qualification is aimed at recognising the skills and knowledge required to provide person-centred support in the health and wellbeing sectors.

The programme aims to develop the skills and knowledge required to provide care under the direction and delegation of a health professional in a range of contexts including; aged residential, acute, primary and rehabilitative care.

The programme includes developing and/or recognising the following competencies in your staff:

- Observing and responding to changes in people in a health and wellbeing setting.
- Recognising and responding to signs of vulnerability and abuse in a health or wellbeing setting.
- Demonstrating and applying knowledge of ethical and professional behaviour in a health or wellbeing setting.
- Providing person-centred support to maximise independence.

Learning and assessment resources

Online learning and assessments can be done through Aka Toi, the Careerforce online learning platform. Access to interactive learning activities, theory content and assessment is now available for this qualification.

Paper-based learning and assessment resources are also available. These can be customised to your organisation. Get in touch with your Workplace Advisor to find out more about this option.
