Qualification and programme overview

This programme aims to develop the skills and knowledge required to undertake the vision and hearing screening of children.

The programme includes developing and/or recognising the following competencies in your staff:

- Demonstrating and applying knowledge of communication process theory.
- Describing hearing, visual system and vision impairment.
- Recognising and responding to signs of vulnerability and abuse in a health or wellbeing setting.
- Recording, interpreting and explaining vision and hearing screening results.
- Carrying out vision and hearing screening tests.
- Demonstrating and applying knowledge of professional and ethical behaviour.

Learning and assessment resources

Paper-based learning and assessment resources are available. These can be customised to your organisation. Get in touch with your Workplace Advisor to find out more about accessing our resources.

Supporting you

Careerforce is the Industry Training Organisation (ITO) for the growing health and wellbeing, social and community, cleaning and urban pest management sectors. We support employers to implement workplace-based training, enabling employees to achieve nationally recognised qualifications and deliver positive outcomes.

Every year we help thousands of trainees to get recognised qualifications and progress their knowledge and skills to improve their practice. With the right training programme, staff are able to contribute to their organisations and provide quality support to many people.

We are there every step of the way: from workforce development planning, to helping you establish a training culture, including training your workplace assessors, to providing rich and relevant resources and connections with the wider sector.

Get in touch with your regional Workplace Advisor:

Across New Zealand, we have Careerforce Workplace Advisors ready to help. Tap into their expertise to find a suitable qualification for your staff at different levels, and ask about the grants and funding available. We'll work together to develop your workforce.
